

CAJUN STUFF

Our Cajun stuff story begins along the Bayous of the Vermilion River in a little Village by the name of Maurice, La. It all began in grandmas kitchen, where recipes were born, refined, and implemented into what is now Cajun Stuff.

Products originate from USDA approved processing plants within the US. Our products are wholesome and fresh, allowing us to produce a product second to none, which in turn allows us to offer the most requested product around the country. Articles written have been many: Including, Country Living Twice, Southern Living, US World News, Sacramento Bee, Paula Deen Christmas Cook Book.
