

E. GUITTARD

Guittard Chocolate Company

Guittard Chocolate Company was founded in San Francisco in 1868 by Etienne Guittard. Five generations later, the company remains family-owned and operated and is one of the few bean-to-bar chocolate makers remaining in the United States. Guittard continues the family tradition of custom-making superior quality chocolate for the professional pastry chef, artisan confectioner and chocolatier.

Our E. Guittard Single Origin & Makers Reserve Blend Chocolates are made in small batches, in the centuries old French artisan tradition. Unlike most chocolate which is made from a blend of cacao beans, each E. Guittard Single Origin Chocolate is made from beans harvested in a single region of the world. The Reserve Blends are in turn produced from unique combinations of these rarified beans.

These sometimes rare and ancient varieties are carefully sourced and gently processed which maintains subtle flavor characteristics inherent in them which are often lost through normal processing.

The E. Guittard line was developed for chefs and artisan confectioners who appreciate and demand the superior quality, flavor profile and craftsmanship the E. Guittard line delivers.

We are confident that these chocolates will enhance your finished creation.
