

VERMONT COUNTRY GRILLSTONE

Vermont Marble has been in business for over 150 years – only 20 years ago, we discovered the qualities of grilling on stone, and have developed the best natural stone grilling products.

The Vermont Country Grillstone is a natural basalt grilling stone that seasons with every use, infusing your dishes with an extra savory grill flavor. Used direct on your grill, the flat stone surface retains heat, providing even, high temperatures.

Our salt products are carved from pure, natural crystal salt from the Himalayan Mountains of Pakistan. The Salt Grilling Plate withstands extremely high temperatures, or can be cooled and used as a Shushi or appetizer plate – both methods impart a tangy mineral salt flavor to foods.

The Vermont Country Grillstone and Himalayan Salt Products can be used in Kosher cooking.
