NICHE GOURMET

A division of Gourmet International, this family owned importing company, specializes in bringing the best of German, Italian, Irish and Columbian chocolates, confections and specialty foods to the U.S. market. All the products are made with the very finest ingredients with nothing artificial. The chocolates are from some of the oldest companies in Europe and Latin America. They are created with time honored tradition and care to every detail of production. The Hachez couverture, available in the 65% and 72%, is of special note due to its 72 hour conching process and its highly refined texture—a must for discerning chefs. Chocolate Santander brings single origin chocolates from Columbia in superb chocolate bars and the very popular chocolate covered nibs and chocolate covered coffee beans. In addition to chocolates, a full portfolio of German food service products is available.
