Native Australian Flavours

Bush Dreams is one of North America's leading importers of Native Australian herbs, spices, and specialty food ingredients. The company, based in Toronto, has been supplying distinctive Australian flavors to the food service/restaurant market for over 13 years.

Over the last 20 years, Australia's botanists, horticulturists, anthropologists, and food industry leaders have worked together with the Aboriginal people to document and analyze native plant species for culinary and nutritional value. These findings have led to the current emergence of Native Australian Cuisine throughout the world. Flavors such as Lemon Myrtle, Pepperberry, and Wattleseed appear in restaurant menus, cookbooks, and retail products throughout Asia, Europe, and now North America. Recently, many Fairmont restaurants, the Fleet Center (home of the Boston Bruins), and the Air Canada Center became clients of Bush Dreams. Also featured at the Australian Wine and Food Showcase at EPCOT, Bush Dreams is an approved supplier to Disney World.

Pepperberry Rub is great on pork/pork chops, chicken, salmon, red meats, and potato dishes. Try Lemon Myrtle Rub Classic on chicken, white fish, and a variety of seafood. Simply rub one large teaspoon per portion before baking or grilling your protein.
