

Sugar Ranch

Imagine ~ a spice so transformative, so flavorful, so deliciously aromatic, that when you add a dash to any dish, you transform the ordinary into extraordinary? Its herbaceous mystery enhances the flavors of seafood to beef; poultry to pork to vegetables. Fennel pollen is that secret ingredient.

What is fennel pollen? The fennel plant grows wild on the sunny inland and coastal fields of California. With its umbels of tiny yellow flowers and dark green or bronze wispy leaves, fennel is an extremely aromatic plant with many uses. The essence of the flavor is in the flowers. These flowers are collected at the peak of bloom and carefully dried and screened for the pollen. Nothing else is added. Sugar Ranch fennel pollen is the highest quality and best in the world.
