

Valley Fig Growers

Valley Fig Growers, a grower-owned cooperative headquartered in Fresno, California, is the largest marketer of dried figs in North America. Retail and industrial products are sold worldwide under the brand name Blue Ribbon Orchard Choice.

Whole California Dried Figs come in two varieties for foodservice—dark purple Missions and golden colored Calimyrnas. Both are delicious, versatile, and highly nutritious and are wonderful additions to menu items that range from appetizers (Figs and Proscuitto) to entrees (Roasted Salmon with Caramelized Onions, Figs, and Red Wine) to desserts (Chocolate Dipped Stuffed Figs).

In addition to whole California Figs the extensive product line includes Soft 40 Fig Paste, and 70° Brix Fig Concentrate. Kosher and organic fig products are available. We supply the world with our delicious, nutritious, California Figs. Valley Fig Growers is proud to lead the industry in new product development, customer service, and superior products.
