

COSTA DEI ROSMARINI

Liguria is an astonishing Italian Region where mountains touch the sea, little fishing villages retain their ancient beauty, and olive trees grow on stone made terraces. Rosmarino Farm is an old house dominating the Tigullio Gulf right in front of the famous Portofino Village.

Luisa, a Food Lover and senior member of the Italian Academy of Cuisine, started in 1995 a limited production of high quality extra virgin olive oil to be used in top cuisine and gourmet restaurants. The first customer was Hotel Cipriani in Venice. Since then other prestigious hotels and famous chefs have decided to buy her oil.

Today, taking advantage of professional oil tasters, Rosmarino Farm collaborates with other Ligurian Farms and integrates their olives into its production. Our extra virgin oil, branded "Costa dei Rosmarini", is bottled in Imperia in small quantities at a time. Its superior quality is constantly controlled by Professional Tasters to assure the highest satisfaction possible.

Santa Chiara is the delicate and most successful oil from Costa dei Rosmarini. Made with 100% Italian olives, in particular the one named Taggiasca from Liguria, it combines an outstanding quality with exclusive gold foil packaging.

Santa Chiara is a gentle, fragrant oil and, as peculiarity of the Taggiasca olives, it has no bitterness. Thanks to its fruity taste and light spicy aftertaste, Santa Chiara is an ideal finishing oil: it exalts every preparation without covering its original taste. We suggest it for finishing salads, pasta sauces, fish and grilled meat.
